A Present for the A.C.T.'s Biggest Sport Family

The A.C.T. Football Federation celebrated Christmas today with the launch of the Capital Football Strategic Plan 2005-07.

Taking place at the Canberra Community Christmas Tree in Civic Square, Deputy Chief Minister Mr Ted Quinlan, exclaimed "the strategic plan is a much needed document that will serve the 16 000+ registered members – that now comprises of juniors, futsal, men, women and referees, well into the future. The ACT Government and Sport & Recreation ACT have been instrumental in providing resources for the world game to continue to provide strong foundations for it's growth in the ACT region."

CEO of Capital Football, Ms Heather Reid, commented that, "This plan has taken considerable effort and time to ensure all stakeholders were consulted in its development and represents the culmination of a historical year for the world game in the ACT. As the sport looks at providing more opportunities for all to take part in Football, it is already gratifying to see the developments that have taken place."

Ms Reid added, "We wish our Capital Football family a safe and fun Christmas break and look forward to another exciting year for the code in 2006."
