

New Technical Staff at Capital Football

Capital Football is excited to announce the following appointments to the Technical Development area:

1. Paul Foster as Technical Adviser

The Technical Adviser position has emerged as one half of the now disbanded full time Technical Manager position. The primary responsibilities of the Technical Adviser are:

- Develop and/or deliver Capital Football's Elite Coach Development programs, at both senior and junior level;
- Identify technical development needs in the Capital region;
- Develop strategies to ensure ongoing technical development of players and coaches in the Capital region.

Paul brings to the role a wealth of experience both as a professional football player and as a Coach. He is currently employed as a Scholarship Coach with the Australian Institute of Sport.

2. Slav Koumdjiev as Development Co-ordinator -

The Development Co-ordinator position is responsible for:

- Management and/or delivery of Capital Football's Development programs, at both senior and junior level;
- Providing assistance to senior and junior clubs in the education and development of coaches and through them players;
- Management and/or delivery of coach education program under the National Coaching Scheme;

Slav has moved to Canberra from Sydney to take up this position. He is currently undertaking his National Coaching Licence and he brings years of coaching experience to the Development Co-ordinator position, most recently coaching a team to the NSW Premier Youth Grand Final in 2005. Slav played semi-professional football in Bulgaria before moving to Australia.

3. Alex Butt to Development Officer

The Development Officer is a newly created position that reflects Capital Football's commitment to development programs particularly through Schools. The primary responsibilities for Alex will be:

- Management and delivery of Schools clinics
- Management and delivery of after school care program (FFA Football Anytime)
- Development and delivery of CF Holiday Clinics including Under 11 Academy teams

Alex has also moved to Canberra to take up the new position. Alex has been working in the Newcastle area as a Coach both in Schools programs and in holiday clinics. Alex is a former professional player with the Parramatta Power in the former National Soccer League.
